

Assam Boy stuck in Hyderabad due to lockdown commits suicide

none • May 2, 2020 3 Less than a minute

PRAG
NEWS

Image Credit: MiddleEast.com

Hyderabad/Baksa: In a sensational incident reported from Hyderabad, a boy hailing from Assam's Baksa district, has committed suicide, stuck in Hyderabad due to lockdown. The boy was working in a private sector company in Hyderabad.

Also read: ICSE and ISC board exams 2020 will be conducted post lockdown

The deceased family doubts financial issue to be the reason behind him taking this drastic step. The mother of the deceased has requested Assam government to make necessary arrangements for bringing the

ASSAM FOR THE PAST FIVE YEARS.

Also read: 10-year-old gangraped in Bihar's Vaishali, accused absconding

A few days ago, another youth from Baksa, had died in Ahmedabad Gujarat and his body was brought to the state. Assam Health Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma took the initiative to bring back the body as the family faced problems in bringing back the body to Assam after Dr. Sarma made requests for the same.