New Delhi: TV actor Manmeet Grewal, who worked in shows like Sony SAB's 'Aadat Se Majboor' and TV's 'Kuldeepak', committed suicide by hanging himself in his house Friday (May 15) night. He was 32. He lived with his wife in a small rented flat in Navi Mumbai's Kharghar. The actor was depressed from the ongoing lockdown as his income was affected because the shoots have been halted.

Manmeet, who was debt-ridden and financially strapped, was quite upset as he couldn't find work due to the lockdown in the country. He was unable to pay the rent for his flat. ABP News found out that he was suffering from depression since some time due to lack of funds.

“Manmeet's wife requested the people to cut the duppata in her husband's neck with scissors while holding his hanging body. The people didn't help because of fear of COVID-19 infection. After some time, a doctor and a police officer came to the spot; however, they also didn't help. About an hour later, the guard cut the scarf from her husband's neck. He was taken to the hospital, where he was declared dead,” Manjit added.
