

Coronavirus lockdown: Financial problems drive elderly couple to commit suicide in Khammam

Representational Image

An elderly couple who committed suicide by consuming poison has died on Sunday morning while undergoing treatment at Khammam government hospital.

Vankudoth Hemla (65) and his wife Tulasi (60) took the extreme step due to financial problems. It is learned that the couple did not find work due to the lockdown and were suffering from financial troubles. On Friday morning, they consumed poison and were shifted to the government hospital by their neighbours who found them unconscious.

The couple has three daughters and two sons. Two of their daughters got married and two sons were residing with their parents as they were physically handicapped. The police registered a case and launched an investigation.

In a similar case, a 22-year-old youngster committed suicide due to financial problems at Chilkalguda in Secunderabad. He was identified as Deshaboina Narayana who worked as a receptionist at a hotel in Gachibowli. The victim is said to have taken loans and was unable to repay.

THE HANS INDIA

More Stories

[Placeholder for main article content]

MORE FROM THE HANS INDIA

MORE >>

[Placeholder for text in list item 1]

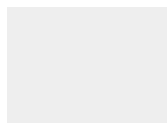

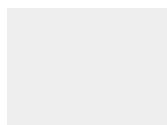

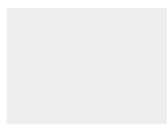

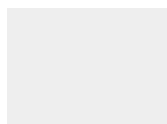

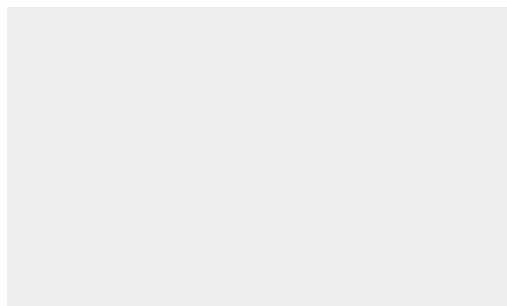

[Placeholder for text in list item 2]

[Placeholder for text in list item 3]

[Placeholder for text in list item 4]

MORE FROM ENTERTAINMENT

MORE >>

Placeholder text for an entertainment article, consisting of several horizontal bars representing lines of text.

NOW AVAILABLE ON

News

Home

Company

Advertise With us

Contact Us

About Us

E-Paper

Entertainment

Cinema

Sports

Editor'S Desk

Crime

Life Style

Tech

Terms & Conditions

Privacy Policy

Disclaimer

Sitemap

All News

AP

Telangana

Nation

World

Business

The HANS

© 2020 Hyderabad Media House Limited/The Hans India. All rights reserved. Powered by hocalwire.com