

HOME / KERALA / GENERAL

Youth ends life after cops seize bike for violating lockdown

Monday 20 April, 2020 | 10:01 AM

READ MALAYALAM

THODUPUZHA: A disheartened youth ended his life after cops seized his bike for violating lockdown. He has been identified as Vijaya Prakash of Chin in Idukki. He tried to commit suicide by dousing petrol on his body. He succumbed to his injuries Monday morning at the Kottayam Medical College. In a suicide attempt, he sustained more than 75% burns. The police had seized his bike the other day when he was out with his vehicle during the lockdown. Unhappy over it, he doused petrol on his body and set himself ablaze.

Where is Ayodhya? Nepal PM Oli triggers debate | A look at different claims

India Today

Best Ayurvedic Hair Oil In India - '10 Days' Hair Oil

10 Days Hair Oil

Mom Gave Birth To Her New Baby, When They Looked In Between His Legs They See The Opposite

Articles Vally

Best Ayurvedic Hair Oil In India - '10 Days' Hair Oil

10 Days Hair Oil | Sponsored

Where is Ayodhya? Nepal PM Oli triggers debate | A look at different claims

India Today | Sponsored

30 Wedding Photos That Went Horribly Wrong

Gloriousa | Sponsored

Mom Gave Birth To Her New Baby, When They Looked In Between His Legs They See The Opposite

Articles Vally | Sponsored

Vikas Dubey: The gangster and his political story

India Today | Sponsored

Three Men Ask Waitress To Settle Bill In Private, Then Bartender Sees Check And Realizes Why

Dailyforest | Sponsored

COPYRIGHT KERALAKAUMUDI ONLINE

CHIEF EDITOR - DEEPU RAVI

Online Queries call Deepu Sasidharan, + 91 98472 38959

Reproduction in whole or in part without permission is prohibited

'Swapna Suresh is not my daughter-in-law',
Thampanoor Ravi turns against cyber comrades

Read Next Story