HYDERABAD: In yet another case of discrimination against people from the northeast (NE) amid the coronavirus outbreak, two youngsters from Manipur were denied entry into Star Supermarket in Hyderabad. Despite the duo showing their Aadhaar cards to prove their identity as Indians, the security staff did not let them in.

While the two men were denied entry on Wednesday, a video of the incident went viral on Thursday, sparking national outrage and Union minister Kiren Rijju seeking details of the incident. Rachakonda police has booked a case against the store manager and two security guards of the store at Vanasthalipuram and taken them into custody. The Telangana government, on its part, assured people from the northeast that immediate action had been taken and that they need not worry The youngsters —
