Uttar Pradesh: Two guest workers commit suicide after returning to their villages

In a similar incident in Sindhan Kala village under Pailani police station area, Manoj (20) who had returned from Mumbai 10 days ago committed suicide by hanging in his room.

His neighbour said that Manoj was working in a private company as security guard which closed down because of the lockdown. His parents had died long ago and he was living alone and had no money to buy ration.

SI in-charge of Pailani, Baljeet Singh, said the body was handed over to the villagers after postmortem examination .

The villages are saying that the deceased committed suicide because of financial problems and an investigation has been started , Baljeet Singh added.
