“Our group of five friends decided to ride our way back to Banda on our cycle after the condition started getting bad at the factory where we used to work. Since coming back, Sunil was under mental pressure as he had no money left.”

“He had to borrow money from his family members to buy a bicycle in which he back home. Our salaries are pending at the factory and many of us were distressed because of it,” added Navneet.

Station House Officer (Kamasin) Vinod Singh said, "The deceased, son of (one) Ramkaran had returned from Mumbai recently. He committed suicide by hanging himself using a 'gamcha' (scarf). Preliminary investigation suggests the deceased was worried about his economic condition. The body has been sent for post mortem."
