Ashish Dabar allegedly committed suicide by hanging himself at his godown and left a suicide note stating that he was unable to repay loans he had borrowed for his business, Kotwali police station in-charge B L Mandloi said.

According to an associate of the deceased, Dabar had borrowed money for his tent business, but the lockdown had dashed all his hopes of doing well.

The deceased had tied a knot in November last year and was the only son of his parents, the associate said.

The deceased's body was sent for post-mortem and a case has been registered in this regard, an official said.
